Season of Pentecost (14)

O God, from whom comes everything that is upright and true:
Accept our thanks for the gifts of heart and mind thou didst bestow
on thy servant Elizabeth,
And which she showed forth among us in her words and deeds;
Deal graciously we pray thee, with those who mourn,
especially the members of the Royal Family,
that casting every care on thee, they may know the consolation of thy love,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
— On the occasion of the death of Queen Elizabeth II

k. Reflections

From the Society of St. John the Evangelist

i. Wealth

All creation, and thus all that we might call material wealth, is the work of God. All wealth that we possess, whether meager or great, is given to us by God’s providence. God places us in a position of stewardship, authority, and responsibility. –Br. Lucas Hall, SSJE

ii. Generosity

God is no ordinary gardener. God is reckless with generosity, sowing love everywhere, not limited by investing only for the best results. Radically open, loving even in the face of rejection and impossibility: this is God’s way. –Br. Luke Ditewig, SSJE

iii. Ecology

As agents of Christ’s regeneration, we each occupy a vital niche in this global web of greatest need. What we do matters, but what and how we love from the center of a new self matters most of all: how we love every molecule of soil, every tree, and every human life for whom Christ “descended into the lower parts of the earth” and “ascended far above all heavens, so that he might fill all things”. –Br. Keith Nelson, SSJE
