We will begin our series by watching the new biography about Mr. Rogers “Won’t you be my Neighbor”. In following weeks, we will be watching short videos or listening to a sermon and discussing the book The Art of Neighboring by Jay Pathak and Dave Runyon. Posted: August 14, 2018

The Rev. Peter Simmons, Editor, Algoma Anglican, advises that submission deadlines for the paper are on the first of every month commencing September 1, 2018. Although there has been some flexibility with these deadlines, that is no longer the case and articles that are submitted past the deadline date will be held for the following edition. Should you have any questions, please contact Rev. Peter directly via e-mail anglican@muskoka.com or via telephone at 705-732-4608.

Listen

We need to be willing to be called by God. If you are reluctant or hesitant or resistant you probably won't hear the voice of God speaking your name, even if shouted from the housetops. Like those first disciples, we need to be open to the possibility that God may indeed be calling our name.

-Br. James Koester

Holy Cross

The weaker you are, the more powerless you feel, the more you will be able to understand this. You have nothing more to lose. Live your life inside of Christ who lives inside of you. He will embody you and enable you. This is Jesus' way, the way of the cross.

-Br. Curtis Almquist
